

The Gems of Pike County Arkansas

Vol. II No. 3 & 4 Publication of the Pike County Archives and History Society Summer & Fall 1991

Box 238, Murfreesboro, Arkansas 71958

NOTES FROM YOUR EDITORS

FINALLY.....here are the last two issues of the Vol. II, No. 3 & 4 of "THE GEMS". We regret the delay but due to illness, family illness, marriages, new grandchildren, jobs, responsibilities and deaths, we were unable to publish "THE GEMS" the last few months. Thank you for understanding.

Dorothy Partain wants to thank everyone for their cards and words of encouragement. They were sincerely appreciated.

The PCAHS is very late with the Pike County Picture Book - Hopefully, this book will go to the printers this spring. We have no idea, at this point, how many pages this book will contain. We will be unable to determine the purchase price of the book until we send the final draft to the publishers. Details will appear in future issues of "THE GEMS".

According to the National Genealogical Society Newsletter, the long awaited 1920 U. S. Federal Census will be released to Federal Depositories, Monday, March 2, 1992.

We want to thank everyone for the books they have purchased from PCAHS and would also like to express our appreciation to those members who sold PCAHS materials. We especially want to thank PCAHS member, Merle Morphew of Newhope, AR for taking PCAHS books to her reunions and selling them. She made a BIG difference!!

We, of "THE GEMS", have found our time so limited that we ask, "is there anyone "OUT THERE" who would volunteer to do "THE GEMS" newsletters for a year? Either four issues of 10 pages or two issues of 20 pages each. We would send data to the person to use in the newsletters. Family obligations, jobs, ect. is making it almost impossible for your editors to "do their job" with the newsletter. We would especially like to have someone willing to do the typing and blocking of the newsletter. If we are unable to enlist some help "THE GEMS" will have to be discontinued.

PCAHS is very indebted to Wendy Richter, Archivist of Riley-Hickingbotham Library, Ouachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia, AR for her many submissions these last few months. Without her help there might not have been a "GEMS" newsletter this quarter. Her copy ready material was deeply appreciated. THANKS, Wendy!!

We would like to encourage everyone to PLEASE send your family stories and queries for inclusion in future issues of "THE GEMS". Without your stories, etc. we cannot publish a newsletter. According to our records, we have 132 family history files, plus bound histories and other data regarding Pike County, Arkansas. We have, to date, not counted the surname cards on file because of the many, many surnames mentioned.

Do you have a FAMILY REUNION, DECORATION or other important event taking place in 1992? If so, please submit your information concerning date, time, place and contact person to "THE GEMS" before the end of February 1992 so that we may print a calendar of events in our next issue of "THE GEMS".

It has been brought to our attention that we inadvertently omitted an important book from our PUBLICATIONS FOR SALE page of the last newsletters. This book, titled "CRATER of DIAMONDS: "JEWEL of ARKANSAS" published in 1989 by Bobbie Hendrix (cost $6.00 per copy) concerns the early history of the Crater of Diamonds of Pike County, Arkansas. We would like to apologize to Ms. Hendrix for this oversight and thank her for her donations of copies of her book.

I am Wesley Reed's wife. I am writing to bring you up to date on what we found out on the Seaborn Reed Family, as Wesley said he would.

Seaborn was born on 19 Aug 1816 in Blount County, Alabama, the son of Joel (b. 26 Nov 1777, NC) and Margaret Long Reed, who married about 1800 in Greenville Co., SC. There were 14 children in the family, all told. The parents of Joel Reed were William Reed (b. 08 May 1756) and Frances Rebecca Robbins (b. 12 Sep 1760), who married in North Carolina about 1776, moved first to Greenville, South Carolina about 1785, then to Ellijay, Gilmer County, Georgia about 1830. They had 13 children, the eldest of which was Joel.

The William Reid family that you found in the 1860 Clark Co., AR census that included a child named Seborn, is Seaborn's brother. The William Reed in Montgomery Co., AR 1850 Census is Seaborn's uncle. No relation whatever to the George W. Reid family in Clark Co., AR.

There is a Reed Family Organization that will be publishing a book on these lines sometime next spring. I thought you would like to know this, as it will include the information about Seaborn (Reed) and Pike County, AR. The coordinator is Dorothy Barnum, 267 Evangeline Dr., Mandeville, LA, 72444. If you would forward any inquires about this particular Reed family to her, it would be greatly appreciated.

I would like to express my gratitude to you for your kindness and helpfulness in this research. It was most unusual to find someone that goes out of their way the way you have. Most of our correspondence with other historical societies has been either ignored, or passed on to researchers-for-hire. We will make certain that others know of your cordiality.

Sincerely,
Aryl-Jeane Reed

Thanks for Dorothy Rooks address.....(I plan to write as soon as time permits).

As you know, the Shreveport Journal (a newspaper) is no longer being printed, however, the Shreveport Times has agreed to print our genealogy column and it will be in the Saturday issue. I am enclosing the one from last Saturday. This one seems condensed from the usual length of the ones in the Journal but we are just glad they agreed to print it.

Please get your people in Pike Co., AR to send in inquires as well as Bible records, information and anything that would be of interest in this area. The TIMES seems to think there is not much interest in/genealogy so we need to show them there is and send a lot of mail....."Genealogical materials may be sent to Ancestor Hunting in care of THE TIMES, P. O. Box 30222, Shreveport, LA 71130-0222".

Cordially,
Barbara F. Rewis

PCAHS editors would like to thank Barbara Rewis and Fran Hawkins for submitting coming genealogical and historical events in the Shreveport area. The Shreve Memorial Library, located in Shreveport has an extensive genealogical section and if you are in their area, it would be worth the time and effort to stop in and browse.

ARCHIVES UPDATE

We were able to purchase "THE HOWARD COUNTY HERITAGE BOOK" published 1988 with the money we made from the Shurfine Sav-A-Label promotion. Thanks to our members and others, for all the label donations. "THE HOWARD COUNTY HERITAGE BOOK", is a beautifully bound book, approximately 8 1/2" x 11", containing 537 pages. Every page is packed with history of the past and present, of Howard, as well as Pike County, Arkansas. There is also lots of informative material about Nashville, AR and the surrounding area. The Howard County Heritage Club of Nashville, 71852, has just promoted a sale price ($60.00 pp) for the last few hundred books. Do not miss an opportunity to purchase this book for your library while supplies last. Also, do not confuse "THE HOWARD COUNTY HERITAGE BOOK" with "THE UNFINISHED STORY OF NORTH HOWARD COUNTY" compiled by Students of Umpire High School, under the direction of Naida Tyndall, and Countless Others 1971-1981, ($15.00 pp) and "MORE OF THE UNFINISHED STORY OF NORTH HOWARD COUNTY" compiled by Lovers of Local History and Encouraged by Zelpha Hunter Allison, Myrl Faulkner Dyer and Numerous Contributors ($15.00 pp).

Martha Treadway, donated a loose leaf notebook of Kizziar/Kizzia family charts. She and her daughter, Debra Treadway Collins were able to document and prove the family of the first Kizzia family of Pike County, AR by using the "Burnt Records" microfilm and index book. They were very fortunate that the Kizzia Estate settlement was in this index and available on microfilm.

Georgia Huddleston Evans, 212 N Jones, Nashville, AR 71832 also donated a loose leaf binder containing charts of the Huddlestons of Pike County, Arkansas. Please note the article written by Ma. Evans in this issue of "THE GEMS".

Albert J. Willett, 451 Hallmark Road, Fayetteville, NC 28303 has donated Vol V, No. 1 - March 1989 and Vol V, No. 3 Quarterlies of "WILLETT HOUSE"... A Single Surname Study of the Willett(s) Family. Mr. Albert J. Willett, is the editor of the above mentioned quarterly and is also the author of THE WILLETT FAMILIES OF NORTH AMERICA, Southern Historical Press, 1985, 2 volumes, hard-bound, 1040 pages, 26 chapters (original price $57.50). The "WILLETT HOUSE" quarterlies which were sent by Mr. Willett contain abstractions of the WILLETT surname from the 1850 United States Census. Anyone researching the WILLETT surname would be thrilled to pick up these quarterlies. I only wish someone had published quarterlies of this nature on the surnames I am researching!!

Henry Earl Jones, P. O. Box 1106, Fairhope, AL 36533, has donated his book, THE JONES OF KENTUCKY'S, CALLOWAY AND MARSHALL COUNTIES 1820-1920. This 8 1/2" x 11" soft-bound volume contains approximately 500 pages. Each family group is given a number.

Southwest Arkansas Regional Archives (SARA) has found a new home in the Old Washington School house in Hempstead County, Arkansas. The School house is located behind the present SARA building. The Old Washington School house will undergo renovations soon.

PCAHS wishes to express our gratitude to Mrs. Mary Maderias, for her many dedicated years of working for SARA. We will miss you Mary Maderias and wish the best for you. We know you will leave SARA with a nostalgic feeling but with a feeling of great pride that you, with the help of others, helped save legacy of Southwest Arkansas. Thank you Mary, and may God bless you. Readers, you may not be aware of it, but Mary Maderias has published several book on the southwest Arkansas area.

PCHAS has purchased shelving for the third floor jail to accommodate the remaining large volumes of ledgers. These ledgers need to be cleaned, catalogued and shelved. Our local volunteers have been unable to accomplish this task due to other obligations. Do we have any members with extra time on their hands who would like to come to Murfreesboro and work in the Archives?

We are sorry to learn of the serious illnesses and deaths of some of our members or their families. Please drop a note and let us know if you have serious illness or deaths in your family, because PCAHS would like to let you know that we care.

WILD WIND

Wind, rushing angrily by; twisting, swirling, disturbing my mind,
Yanking and pulling, tossing everything aside, never at peace.
No quiet, gentle breeze this -- a raging storm.
Where is the bounding triumph, the exhilaration felt by some?
All I hear, all I feel, is unleashed violence and destruction,
A battering of waves upon rocky shores, a grinding force of power
Stripping everything to its bare elements -- including the spirit of man.

Lee Ann Turner

PCAHS member Lee Ann Turner, a native of Pike County, Arkansas and now a resident of Whittier, Alaska submitted the above poem to Quill Books and the poem was accepted and published.

CONGRATULATIONS Lee Ann!!
and THANKS FOR SHARING WITH PCAHS

ATTENTION PCAHS MEMBERS

To our PCAHS members.....consider this newsletter as Vol III. #1 - Winter 1992 Believe it or not this issue of "THE GEMS" was started in July of 1991. We could make a long long list of the reasons for the delay in completing this issue but our reasons would probably be of very little or no interest to our readers. We do apologize but the delay was unavoidable.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES IN THE SOUTHERN STANDARD: 1879-1884

Compiled by Allen Syler

Submitted by Wendy Richter

In 1879, the Southern Standard, Clark County's weekly newspaper, began publishing notices from the Camden and Little Rock land offices about county residents who had filed notice of their intention to make final proof of their homestead claims. While there must have been many homestead entries prior to 1879, that is the first year the notices appeared in the Southern Standard. Lands enumerated were located in Clark, Pike, Dallas, Hot Spring, and Montgomery Counties. "Homestead Notices" were published in the newspaper for four to six weeks. Apparently homesteaders saved the notices to submit them to land offices as proof of publication.

The entries listed below include all of the Pike County claims which appeared in the Southern Standard. The entries relate the following information: the date of the issue of the paper in which the notice appeared; location of the land office; date of final proof; entry number, when supplied; name of homesteader; location of the homestead entry; and, names of from two to five witnesses who testified to the applicant's continuous residence upon and cultivation of the land in question. The 1991 issue of the Clark County Historical Journal will include an article by Allen Syler containing entries for all of the counties listed above for the years 1879 through 1890.

Pike Countians in the Civil War:

From The Camp, The Bivouac and the Battle Field

Submitted by Wendy Richter

The Fourth Arkansas Infantry Regiment, Confederate States Army, was composed of men from the counties of Hempstead, Montgomery, Lafayette, Calhoun, Polk, and Pike in southwest Arkansas. Armed mostly with double-barreled shotguns, flintlocks, and squirrel rifles, they left their home counties, in a flare of glory with much speech making and flag presentation. The Regiment marched into Missouri in August of 1861, where the companies were inducted into Confederate service.

Few regiments in the war could have fought in more battles than the Fourth Arkansas, and perhaps none marched further. The Fourth was at Elk Horn, Richmond, Kentucky, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, in the Atlanta campaign, with John Hood during his thrust into Tennessee, and in the final battles in North Carolina.

Dr. Washington Lafayette Gammage, author of the book, little is known. He was born in Alabama in 1827 and lived in Texas as early as 1850. On May 1, 1861, he joined the Lone Star Defenders, Cherokee County, Texas State Troops, but apparently was with the Fourth Arkansas from the time of its organization. He was killed in an accident at Mobile, Alabama on his way home from the war.

Gammage kept a journal from which he wrote a history of the Fourth Arkansas. Unlike most regimental histories, this story was taken from the journal and published during the war. Originally issued at Selma, Alabama in 1864, probably in very limited numbers, the book became one of the rarest of all Confederate imprints. A reprint by Southern Arkansas Press of Little Rock was done in 1958. A copy of the reprint is available at Riley-Hickingbotham Library, Ouachita Baptist University. The following is Gammage's summary of Company G, from Pike County:

On the 17th day of August, 1861, the first complete organization of the Southwestern Arkansas Regiment (afterwards known as the 4th Arkansas Regiment) was effected by the following companies being sworn into the Confederate service by Lieut. Col. Dandridge McRae, to-wit:

Company G, from Pike County, Arkansas, numbering eighty-eight men, was first known as the Pike County Blues.

FROM THE GURDON TIMES, November 19, 1904:

Pike County News

Pike County is all right.

Cotton is coming in freely to Pike, Delight, and Antoine.

Lumbering, asphalt mining and railroad building is brisk in Pike County.

Dr. Wright is about to leave Pike City for a larger practice---the eastern part of the state.

Pike City is picking up and seems to have a future before it. It is not dead and will not be buried.
