THE CROWE FAMILY

Excerpts pertaining to the Alexander family edited from "The Crowe Family" a manuscript written by Reverend John Finley Crowe, DD, husband of Esther Alexander, Presbyterian Minister and Founder of Hanover College, Hanover, Jefferson County, Indiana about 1855.

Having been solicited by my sons to give them some information of my parentage and relatives, I have concluded to devote a portion, of the leisure of a long vacation in college duties, to that subject.

I know but little of your mother's family. Her father, John Alexander ... emigrated to Pennsylv-vania where he married. He had four (five) children by his first wife, his second wife was Mary Price ... Until the death of Mr. Alexander about the year 1800, they lived in Lincoln county (North Carolina). He left a family of four sons and six daughters. The sons were Alexander, John, James and Reese, the daughters, Violet, Jane, Elizabeth, Ann, Esther and Elvira.

In 1808 Mrs. Alexander's family joined a Presbyterian colony from Dr. Hall's congregation in Lincoln and Iredell counties to Bellevue, Missouri.
Shortly after their settlement in Bellevue, Alexander and John married Mary and Catharine McCormack (McCormick) daughters of another widow lady belonging to the colony. They both subsequently became Ruling Elders in the church of Caledonia, raised large families, and some six or eight years ago were both called to their reward. James and Reese both married in Bellevue and afterward moved to Arkansas. Some fifteen years ago they both died.

James left a family of twelve or fourteen (thirteen) children, and Reese, two daughters. Violet the eldest daughter never married. She lived in her brother James' family and died some years before him. Jane married Jason Frizell in Bellevue, and after some years residence there, they moved to Northwestern part of the State of Missouri. We have not heard from them for more than twenty years. Elizabeth married William Hunt. They settled in Bellevue where she died several years ago leaving a family of children. I know not how many.

Ann married John Henry in North Carolina. They first moved to Bellevue and afterwards to Arkansas.
Brother Henry was a man of ardent piety and was licensed as a preacher in the Methodist Church and although he continued to labor as a local preacher he seemed to be extensively useful. He probably is still living in Hempstead County, Arkansas. His eldest son John was also a preacher in the same connection, a young man of great promise, but he died young. His mother (Ann) also died a comparatively young woman leaving five or six children. Elvira the youngest child married John Brewer in Bellevue and shortly after their marriage they moved to Arkansas where they are probably still living. When I visited the family in 1839 (in Pike County, Arkansas) they had six or seven children. Since which time we have not heard from them.

In Memory of Walter Kirkham

Walter Kirkham's life was an open book, and to turn back the pages of time we find his life was spent looking after the needs of his family and friends. When it came to taking care of the sick, he was the first to arrive and the last to leave. He seemed to enjoy helping those who needed help. He had a part in life to perform that but few enjoy, but he willingly did his duty as a citizen, friend, and neighbor.

He will be missed by all who knew him. - Owen A. Owens.

Is there an 1850 or 1860 Pike Co. map showing census townships? i.e. White, Redland, Antoine, etc.

Dear Jerry,

I received your query and family information post-marked May 16, 1994 and it has motivated me to create a map for Pike County, Arkansas circa 1851 and a copy is enclosed. It is as nearly correct as I am able to make from census and land records and old maps in my possession. Unfortunately old maps do not provide the civil townships, some do show the surveyed township by range and thereunder by section. I have used the census records and the land records to recreate civil township locations. The Brewer, Thompson, and Missouri Townships were formed in 1834. The Antoine and White townships were formed by 1850. Cross Roads in Antoine Township preceded Kirby as the name of this location. Wilton P.O. in Brewer Township was established on February 19, 1849 with A.W. Coles as postmaster. Hughes Mill north of Murfreesboro in Thompson Township is the same place selected by Henry Merrell for his mills established in 1856 and a community known as Royston formed as a result. Murfreesboro was located as the county seat and named by the county commissioners, John Dickson, Elijah Kelley, and Rice Stringer in 1834. Brocktown P.O. in Missouri Township was established on November 17, 1851 with Jackson Brock as postmaster. The Antioch Church was established on April 7, 1833. The Hud-dleston P.O. was established April 3, 1851 with Nathaniel Gray as postmaster. His ferry was located in the same place John Wood in 1827 and Jacob Brinley as his successor in 1832 established their ferries. The Antoine P.O. was established June 27, 1838 (on the Clark County side of the boundary) with John Henry Swink as postmaster. I hope this will be helpful.

Sincerely,

David L. Kelley

Dear David,

An update of my Query published "Gems" Vol. V, No. 2, Spring 1994. ALLEN, RIDDLE, McKINNON, STONE. Henry Allen that died Hempstead County late 1880 appears to be the grandfather of Christian R., Sarah J., and Alex M. Allen. A Henry Allen deeded property, Clark Co. AR Deed Bk. Q, page 521, to these three children in 1872, stated they were his grand-children and the land was to be used for their support and education.

DAVIS, HARRIS, HIPPS, COX, BOX, COPELAND, HENDERSON, ALFORD, McCOOL, BURKETT, REDWINE Seeking information on Martha A. (Hosie), Willie, & Temperance J. (Cox). Would like to know where Martha Henderson Davis Box is buried and desire to correspond with any descendants.

Dear Dorothy,

I have been able to locate Susan Woodall, Sr. in 1850. She and her children (no husband) were in Posey County, IN. See separate sheet enclosed. The Susan A. Woodall age 16 show on this sheet was my great grandmother the one who married Jesse C. Fox. This means that Susan Sr. was indeed her mother. I have also learned that the William Samuel Woodall talked about in the "My People" story in THE EARLY HISTORY OF PIKE COUNTY, ARKANSAS was "W.S. Woodall" son of the John G. Woodall, age 24, on the enclosed sheet. This family was listed in the 1860 census of Pike County, AR a follows:

Woodall, J.G.	35 m	GA
Woodall, Amanda 32 f	GA
Woodall, J.P.	7 f	GA
Woodall, W.S.	5 m	GA
Woodall, P.S.	3 m	GA
Woodall, M.S.	2 f	AL

As you can see from the above William Samuel Woodall was not even born until 1855 and the family was still in Alabama in 1858. Therefore "W.S." and family could not possibly have been in Clark/Pike counties in 1845 as stated in the "My People" story. Despite extensive research, my other questions regarding the FOX/WOODALL lines remain pretty much unanswered.

Sincerely,

EUNICE FOX FONTENOT
