John Hardin

John Hardin was born in Pike County, Ark., in 1836, to Abraham K. and Elizabeth (Wilson) Hardin, the former a native of Tennessee and the latter born in Missouri. They were brought to Arkansas by their parents in an early day, and spent the remainder of their lives in the southwestern portion of the State. When the subject of this sketch was a small boy, they removed from Pike to Clark County, and here the father was called from life in 1844, his wife dying in 1863, both being members of the Presbyterian Church at the time of their death. Mr. Hardin was a successful farmer, and was a son of Hon. Joseph Hardin, one of the early settlers of Southwestern Arkansas, and for some years a member of the Arkansas Legislature from Clark county, where he died prior to the (Civil) war, aged about eighty eight. The maternal grandfather of the subject of this sketch was Hon. John Wilson, who came from the State of Missouri thither at a very early day. He was a man of considerable prominence, and for a number of years was a member of the Legislative Assembly from Pike County. It was he who killed Mr. Anthony on the Legislative floor, an act he always afterward deplored, although it was done in self-defense, as the latter had threatened his life. At that time Mr. Wilson was Speaker of the House. He made a trip to California, after which he removed to Texas, where he died in 1864, having lived a long life of usefulness. John Hardin, whose name heads this sketch, was the sixth of eight sons and (four) daughters, and after spending his youthful days on a pioneer farm and in attending the common schools, he started out for himself. He served for about two years in a cavalry company of Arkansas State Troops during the Civil War, after which his company was disbanded at Washington, Ark., and he returned to his farm. Miss Etta, a daughter of F.C. Moore, became his wife in 1870, and they now (1890) have a family of five sons and five daughters. Since the month of March, Mr. Hardin has lived on his present farm of 400 acres, which is situated about two miles southwest of Okolona. Two hundred acres are under cultivation, and in addition to tilling this land, he is quite extensively engaged in stock-raising, and is one of the leading agriculturists of his section. His wife is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and he is a Democrat politically, and socially is a member of the A.F. & A.M., Robert Morris Lodge No. 106, of Okolona. Mrs. Hardin's father removed from Tennessee to this State, and is now living in Faulkner County, a farmer and merchant by occupation. He at one time served as clerk of the county. His wife died in Tennessee when Mrs. Hardin was born.

Desmond Walls Allen

Pike County Arkansas Deaths 1924-1933, Malcom-Young. Desmond Walls Allen, Arkansas Research, Inc., PO Box 303, Conway, AR 72033.

PCAHS extends its appreciation to Desmond Walls Allen who once again is providing "The Gems" death certificate index information for Pike County, Arkansas. Arkansas is fortunate to have indexes of the death certificate records in a series of volumes compiled and published by Desmond of Arkansas Research. One of the immediate values of these volumes is not having to exercise a "hit or miss" when ordering a death certificate. They provide the name of the individual, the date of death, and the county where the death occurred and are in both statewide and regional volumes and the information is the same, only the arrangement and selection are different.

Statewide Volumes

Arkansas Death Record Index, 1914-1923, 572 pages, $49.50;

William H. Haynesworth

The subject of this sketch, William H. Haynesworth, was born July 17, 1891 at Sulphur Springs, Texas, where he resided until the World's Great War, when he answered the call of his country and followed the flag to an unknown shore.

After his discharge, from the military service, Mr. Haynesworth removed to Glenwood to make his home. Here he was married to Miss Marion Butcher, daughter of the late Mr. Butcher. He is survived by his wife and one son, Lawrence Penn, his mother, Mrs. Mary Haynesworth of Sulphur Springs, Texas, two brothers, C.E. of Glenwood and J.N. of Sulphur Springs, Texas; and other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his untimely demise.

The deceased was a quite, peaceable citizen and during his residence in Glenwood, was well liked and respected by the citizens of the community; and his passing is a loss to the country.

During his military service, Mr. Haynesworth was subjected to a "gas attack" and from which, perhaps, he never fully recovered, when until the first of this year, a decline in health was very evident. Several weeks ago he went to Memphis for treatment, later transferred to the government sanitarium as Ashville, North Carolina, and there it was believed he would regain health, when tubercular meningitis developed, resulting in death, April 13, 1927.

The remains were sent back to Glenwood, the casket being wrapped in a beautiful banner of the Stars and Stripes, as evidence that his life was given for his country and civilization.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Lloyd A. Sparkman, after which the remains were conveyed to the cemetery, followed by large and mournful numbers of relatives and friends.

In the City of the Dead, our estimable citizen, patriot, soldier and hero, was confined to the en-folding arms of mother earth, where he will sleep until the great Commander on High shall sound the call of reveille, and those who have enlisted under the banner of righteousness will rise again and answer the last roll call.

The Glenwood Herald, April 21, 1927.

Pike County Clerk
Courthouse
Murfreesboro, AR 71958

To The County Clerk:

I hope you can help me on this. I need some substantiation of the death of my grandfather, Jeremiah Monroe Shinkle. He is also shown in some records as Jerry Shinkle, and "JM" Shinkle.

Jeremiah, his wife Rebecca and their children lived in Kirby. They are buried in Bear Creek Cemetery. Rebecca died on January 4, 1936. I was able to get her death certificate (indicating) she was buried in Bear Creek Cemetery and the undertaker was Westbrook Funeral Home in Glen-wood.

I have been unable to obtain a death certificate for Jerry Shinkle, her husband. He is buried beside her in Bear Creek Cemetery. I don't have an exact date, but he died before his wife, and we think it was in the early 1930's. He was born about 1851 in Missouri.

Are there any records there showing his death or burial? Or are there any cemetery records for Bear Creek?

Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Rita Lee

Do you know anyone doing research on Pike-Grant Co. Davis line besides Clover Hale of Grapevine, AR? I emailed Cindy Scott re. info. on internet that Abram C. Davis married Rachel Ianthia White, an Indian girl ... I thought there was Indian blood somewhere in (the) Davis or Garnet line, but have never found anyone who had info. I feel it must be someone down Cynthia E. Davis (marr. John Funderburk) and is buried in Hicks Cem. in Pike Co. Because the only 2 children listed for Abram and Ianthia are Thos. H. and Cynthia E.

Basket, Baskett, Garrison, Garrison, Murray, Murry, Taylor

Posted by Gary Cooper (garlin@foxinternet.net) on Thu, 04 Nov 1999. I have been trying to research Pike Co. AR for several years. Many years ago I received some unsourced and un-documented information about a Charles BASKET, b. 1780 unknown location. He was married to Mary Ann "Polly" TAYLOR b. 1794 unknown location. Allegedly, they had 7 sons, all names unknown, and one daughter. The daughter, Malinda Jane, or Matilda BASKET, b. 29 Feb 1824 possibly in Corinth, AR area. The unconfirmed part of this story is, in 1828, about 5 years before Pike County was formed, Charles BASKET was the Sheriff of Corinth, AR. He had several prisoners in jail, and there was a breakout of the jail. Six of Basket's seven sons were allegedly killed in the breakout. The killers allegedly fled to Texas. The Sheriff was allegedly killed in the breakout. The seventh son allegedly went into Texas looking for the killers and was never heard from again. The daughter, Malinda Jane or Matilda BASKET survived and married Isaac MURRY b. 1822. They were married in 1844. On 25 Mar 1845, the first of 8 children were born at Corinth. Their children's names were: Mary Elizabeth b. 25 Mar 1845; John Christopher b. 1 Oct 1847; Susan D. b. 3 Apr 1850; Florrie A. b. 1852;

Charles Rice b. 11 Jun 1854; Eliza Jane b. 11 Aug 1859; Franklin Dedrick b. 1860. There was also a child named Nettie, b. unknown year. It is not known if all the children were born in Corinth. Their daughter, Mary Elizabeth married James Henry GARRISSON or GARRISON, in Corinth on 22 Oct 1872. Records show James Henry Garrison was in the Civil War and served with his father-in-law, Isaac Murry. The record shows Pvt. James Garrison (spelling James Garrison) was present for the Company Muster Roll of Company B, 1 Regiment Arkansas Cavalry. This is listed as Gordon's Regiment Cavalry (Confederate). He enlisted on April 3, 1863. He was captured and held prisoner in Maryland. In 1911, James Henry Garrison was being interviewed for the Arkansas Census of Confederate Veterans, and was quoted as saying, "He was married on October 22, 1872 at Corinth, Arkansas to MARY ELIZABETH MURRAY, daughter of Isaac and Malinda Murray of Corinth, Arkansas". On 16 Aug 1873, they had a son, Charles Baxter GARRISON. They had four more children, John T., Dave M., Isaac "Ike" and Rice B. (possibly Price B.). They moved to Howard County, near the town of Athens, between 1873 and 1895. Parts of this story occurred prior to the formation of Pike County. Attempts to verify the parts about the Sheriff and the town of Corinth have been unsuccessful. Any assistance appreciated.

Garrison, Murray

Posted by Morris Myers (morris@themyers.org) on Sun, 02 Jan 2000. I looked in the 1850, 1860 and 1870 Pike County AR Census information and found nothing I could connect to the names you mentioned. I also searched the book "Corinth and its Kinfolks" by S.B. Reese and found no reference to the BASKET name. However, there are several mentions of the MURRAY name. I also searched the sequel "Corinth Revisited by its Kinfolks, 1977" by Lucille Westbrook and found the following entries in the Old Corinth Cemetery:

GARRISON, Johnathon H.
son of J.H. and M.J.
June 29, 1871
Dec 18, 1889

MURRAY, Charles Rice
1854-1926 (June 11, 1854-Feb 11, 1926)

MURRAY, Mary Eliza

1856-1940 (Apr 10, 1856-July 26, 1940)

MURRAY, Isaac
1822-1897

MURRAY, Malinda Jane (Baskett)
Feb 29, 1824
Apr 7, 1903

MURRAY, Augustus Lafayette
Aug 8, 1879
May 11, 1880

The following entries are from the 1875 Howard County Tax book: Section 14, T8S, R27W, James Garrison, NE 1/4, SE1/4, 40; Fr. NE 1/4, 60. That is all the information I found but given that the book is not indexed it is possible that I missed some references. I hope the information is useful.

Billings, Polk

Posted by Pamela Johnson (pjohnson@frozen.com) on Fri, 24 Dec 1999. My great grandmother was Lucinda Tennessee POLK, b: Sep 1867, AR, and lived in Muddy Fork Township, Howard, previously Pike county, AR. Her father was Jefferson A., or A. Jefferson POLK; we do not know her mother, she died between 1876-1880. Lucinda POLK married David-? BILLINGS c. 1888/89 and had three children, Oscar, Homer, Eunice, then married Isaac JOHNSON, my great grand-father in TX in 1898. The 1880 Howard Co. cen-sus, Muddy Fork Township lists the following: Jefferson POLK (45) widower, born in TN, father born in NC, mother born in TN. Charles J. (17) born in AR. Mary B. (15) born in AR. Lucinda T. (13) born in AR. Ada M. (11) born in MS, married James A Floyd. Martha B. (9) born in AR. Rosa (4) born in AR. I have reason to believe that Jefferson POLK had a brother William C. POLK. Both men were granted nearby land patents 01 Feb 1861 in Muddy Fork Township, Pike Co. According to the 1860 Pike Co. census, one C.M. (Charles) POLK was born in NC, his wife R.B. (Rebecca) was born in TN and their children A.J. (Allen) and W.C. (William) were also born in TN. Thus, based on approximate ages, birthplaces and geographic location, it seems plausible that Jefferson A. POLK could indeed be the same person as Allen J. POLK. Allen J. Polk served in Co. K, 24th Arkansas Infantry from 1862 to 1865. He married Mary Jane BILLINGS in 1882, and we suspect this to be a second marriage for A.J. POLK. He died in 1888. I am trying to either confirm or refute the possibility that A. J. Polk, Allen J. Polk and Jefferson A. Polk are the same man. QUESTIONS: Can anyone connect or disconnect A.J., Allen J. and Jefferson A. POLK? Does anyone know anything about the other POLK children listed with Jefferson in 1880? Can anyone connect the BIL-LINGS family in Pike county to this POLK fami-ly? Does anyone know Jefferson or Allen J. POLK's first wife's name?

Hanging During Civil War

Posted by: Jettie Parrish (jparrish@mev.net); Date: April 03, 1999 19:06:46. Jackson Henley, his wife Matilda, and family are listed as residing in Caney Fork township, Pike County, Arkansas in 1860 census. Family information suggests that Jackson was hanged about 2-4-1864. Is there any records in Pike County that go back this far?? I believe that Jackson Henley would have been pro Union, as a son was in Union Army.

Posted by: Sherrie Nunn Flud (fluds@hotmail.com); Date: July 19, 2000 19:08:09 ... Do you know if the Gladys Reed in your line had a brother or who her parents could have been? I have Virgil Richard Reed b 1867 TN. Married Isley Milberry Keen 1889. So I know he was in AR by 1889. Virgil's father was James Reed who married Martha Riddle. Family tradition goes that Martha died in childbirth when Virgil was about 5 years old and he was raised by an aunt. I do not know if James was dead by then or if he didn't think he could raise the son alone or if the aunt was in TN or AR or where or did James remarry ... If there's a connection, we can certainly share information from this line from about 1900

Posted by: Vicki Meagher (vicki_meagher@yahoo.com); Date: October 11, 2000 07:39:48 ... Mary Derinda Conaster is most likely named for my ancestor, Derinda Conatser. There were several Conatser people from Marion Co., TN who, according to information I've received, started migrating to Texas but ended up in Pike Co., AR. Supposedly, some of them got sick and they stayed there. The names in this party were: Daniel Keith, John Albert, Henry Alexander, William Bourland, and their uncle John Henry. All these people had the surname Conatser. These men were brothers to my ancestor Derinda, who stayed in Marion Co. She married Walker Layne. I have a good bit of information about the Conatser family in Tennessee and before, all the way to Germany, but nothing about what happened to them after they migrated to Pike County. Mystery Lady of Pike County, Arkansas

I'm trying to find out my great-grandmother's maiden name. She lived in Pike City, Arkansas in Pike County about 1890 until her death about 1920. I am not sure if she lived there before that time period or not. I am going by when my grandmother was born.

My great-grandparents were James Edward Harris and Susan Frances Harris and they had one child Lu Ella Harris born June 11, 1890 in Pike County, Arkansas. The full name of my grand-mother was Lu Ella Plana Jane Minnie Harris.

James Edward Harris and Susan F. were married in the year 1880 but I don't know where they were married. The 1900 Missouri Township, Pike County, Arkansas Census has them living there. The strange thing about this whole story is that James Edward Harris was very old when their daughter was born. He was 70 and she was 40 when my grandmother was born.

James Edward Harris was born the year 1820 in Georgia. His father was from North Carolina and his mother was from South Carolina. Susan Frances Harris was born the year 1850 in Arkansas or Georgia. Both of her parents were from Georgia. The 1900 census has her born in Arkansas. The 1910 census has her born in Georgia.

I don't know my great-grandmother's maiden name but my grandmother always made a rhyme from her mother's given name. Susan Frances Carmelie Cordolia Fesolony Aselene Jane. I'm not sure about the spelling. I just wish she had added the maiden name to her rhyme.

Mrs. Susan F. Harris married William M. Wright after the death of her husband. Mr. William M.

Wright had been a widower for several years before he married Mrs. Susan F. Harris. His first wife was Salina Elizabeth Brauner Wright.

William M. Wright was born on September 20, 1833 in South Carolina. He died November 07, 1918 in Shawmut, Pike County, Arkansas. Susan F. Harris Wright was born the year 1850 in Arkansas or Georgia. She died about 1920 in Pike County, Arkansas.

My grandmother only had one picture of her mother and one picture of her father. The original picture of her mother was metal and my mother had copies made of it years ago. I always remember looking at her picture on my grand-mother's living room wall and thinking how strange she looked. She had a hat on with a flower on the side of it. In the picture it shows her with pierced earrings in her ears. I now think my great-grandmother is beautiful in this picture.

The picture of James Edward Harris shows him with a suit on and he has a long gray beard. He looks to be about 70 years old. My grandmother said he was a preacher. I think he may have had another family before he married Susan F. Harris. He was 60 and she was 30 when they married. I'm not sure of this; it just seems old for a first marriage.

My grandmother always said John Wesley Huddleston that owned the Diamond Mine in Murfreesboro was her mother's uncle. I don't know if it is by marriage or if she was a Huddle-ston. I hope someone will read this and know something about this mystery lady, Susan Frances Carmelie Cordolia Fesolony Aselene Jane.

PCAHS UPDATE

May 29 - Progress is being made at the new Pike County Archives and History Society facility. The walls are being taped and mudded and we should be able to start painting before long. The county is installing handicap restroom facilities and heat and air. After we get the painting done they will be able to finish the floor and ceiling and we will be ready to move in, possibly in July or August, but that is my estimate.

The Archives is going to have a booth at the Diamond Festival this year. Gateway has donated the loan of a computer, and Alltel has donated internet services for the two days of the festival. We are going to be looking up quick references of family history on the internet for people that wish this done and since we will be accessing free internet sites and the equipment loaned, we are only asking for voluntary donations for this ser-vice. This is not planned as a money making project for us. We will be selling books.

We received a very large history of the Horne family for the archives from John Logan Davis. This history is well referenced and includes the Wessons, also the Clark County (Arkansas) Davises, and many more family names. We wish to thank Mr. Davis for his generous contribution.
