Mrs. Dora Lee
1842 Patterson Street
Eugene, Oregon

Dear Mrs. Lee:

At the request of my aging friend, Mr. Roscoe Brewer, I am replying to your letter of September 16th addressed to him. Mr. Brewer is approaching eighty years of age and is not in good health. He had an operation seven years ago, which he survived.

It is evident from your letter that you have had access to some reliable sources on your family history. I have always enjoyed the study of my own family history. My family originated in England before the days of William the Conqueror. Several years ago I was getting up an exhibit for our county fair here and I went through the Brewer papers and got several original land patents, which were then in the possession of Mr. Roscoe Brewer and, in going through those papers, I found letters ² written to his grandfather back here in Arkansas during the 1850's from his brother, who had gone on to Oregon. There were at least two of those letters written from the Brewers in Oregon. From my memory, there were two Brewers, whose names I do not recall, that went to Oregon. It appears that this family first settled in Missouri and then moved here to Pike County, Arkansas, and took up government land in the valley of The Little Missouri River about two or three miles Northwest of Murfreesboro, the county seat. The family is numerous.

We always called Mr. H.T. Brewer "Buck" Brewer and I remember him as a very small boy as he and I attended the same Methodist Church. He, Aunt Emily and their daughter, Nell, all of whom are now gone on, attended the Methodist Church with me during the years of 1909 and 1910.

Mr. Brewer thinks that you could make a trip out here and look at the papers, most of which he still has, and it might be helpful. He says he would be glad to have you and invites you to be a guest in his home while you are here. He and his wife now live alone. They only have one daughter and she is living in Little Rock. Mr. Roscoe Brewer is the only member of his family now living here. You say you have written his only other surviving brother, Mr. Ozero Brewer, retired attorney over at Helena, Arkansas. You mention Mrs. Cora Roundtree. She has been dead several years but I think the Bible you mentioned is now in the possession of her daughter, who is Mrs. Wilson Gilleylen, the wife of our present postmaster here. Mrs. Roundtree only had two children and the other one, Katherine McDonald, died about five or six years ago.

² Letters from the family of Henry Brewer's brother John Brewer. John Brewer died in Pike County, Arkansas in 1845. His widow, Elivra Alexander Brewer, and several children moved to Oregon in 1853.

Mr. Brewer cannot help you locate the parents of John Brewer of North Carolina who married Elvira Alexander.

May I suggest this to you? You write the Bureau of Public Printing in Washington D.C. and buy a copy, if it is still available, of the heads of household of the first census. I have one that was made for Virginia and they were available when I bought mine about thirty years ago for all of the counties. Of course, there are no reprints available. Maybe you have already done this. My ancestors on my father's side came through Virginia and there is a record of four heads of families in my copy of this record of the first census.

Our courthouse in Pike County burned in 1895 but I have a set of abstract books that go back as far as 1855 from which you could get lots of information relative to land transfers involving Brewers in this county.

Yours very truly,

Alfred Featherston

DORA E. LEE

A funeral for Dora E. Lee, a Northeast Portland resident, will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in the chapel of Rose City Cemetery and Funeral Home. Interment will be in Rose City Cemetery.

Dear David Kelley,

I was surprised to run across the Slave Schedule of the 1850 Census that showed that some Brewer's were slave holders. Now I'm wondering what happened to the slaves. Were they sold before making the trip to Oregon or were they taken to Oregon?

When the Oregon Territory became a state in 1848, slave holding was prohibited. It seems like the Brewer's would have sold their slaves before leaving for Oregon since it would be illegal to keep them. Apparently any official record of slave sales in (Pike County) Arkansas would have been destroyed in ... the Court House fires ...

Enclosed is the copy of Dora Lee's obit you requested.

Sincerely,

Jim Brewer

Mrs. Lee died of cancer Wednesday in her home at the age of 87. She was born April 18, 1905 in Boistfort, Wash. Mrs. Lee was reared and schooled in Washington. She married Myrle Lee on Jan. 4, 1925 in Toledo, Wash. She moved to Oregon in 1930 and lived in Eugene for 39 years before moving to the Portland area in 1979. Mrs. Lee was a homemaker and a member of St. Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church. Her husband died in 1983.

Corinth Revisited By Its Kinfolk

Houston, Texas
December 27, 1977

Lucille Westbrook
Route 4, Box 247
Nashville, Ark 71952

Dear Lucille,

I must again express my personal and sincere thanks for the copy of your (book) compilation, "Corinth Revisited By Its Kinfolks 1977". This will be a very helpful aid to those interested & researching these families. It has been a help to me!

I am sending ... excerpt(s) (from) four letters written to the editors & publishers of "The Gospel Advocate" relative to the church at Corinth. The first two letters were written by John S. Robertson and if you note from the bottom of page 186 in your book, S.B. Reese writes ... "After the church was organized, probably two years, they built a very good house just across the road from the cemetery. This house was not a log house as was common those days, but a frame building of fairly good size. Pretty soon a man by the name of John S. Robertson preached for them several years ..."

The last two letters were written by Elijah Kelley, Sr....

Sincerely yours,

David L. Kelley

Excerpt from a letter written by John S. Robertson to the editors and publishers of the Gospel Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee. Vol. 4, November 1858, page 347:

REPORT FROM ARKANSAS.

Bros. Fanning and Lipscomb: ... Our next meeting was held with the church at Corinth, Pike Co., embracing the fourth Lord's day in last month, which resulted in five valuable accessions.

In company with Elder William Kelley, we arrived at this place on Friday last, and commenced a meeting under very unfavorable circumstances; but our prospects have been brightening ever since. We have had eleven accessions, among them are some of the most worthy citizens of the community; persons who have heads and hearts that would do honor to any cause they might espouse. The truth has gained a glorious victory here. May the Lord bless the brethren and sisters here and elsewhere, and may the truth prevail over the earth ...

Yours in one hope,

J.S. Robertson Mt. Ida,

Ark., Oct. 6, 1858

Excerpt from a letter written by John S. Robertson to the editors and publishers of The Gospel Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee. Vol. 7, September 1861, page 298:

CO-OPERATION MEETING.

Dear Brethren: -- Our Co-operation meeting at Corinth, Pike Co., closed last Lord's day, having continued ten days. It was one of the most happy and triumphant meetings I ever attended, circumstances considered. The whole community was in motion. Military meetings were held almost every day within a few hundred yards of the meeting calling for volunteers, which kept the people much excited, but notwithstanding this, we had good audiences, and a clear demonstration that the gospel, when faithfully presented, is the power of God unto salvation. The result was 24 accessions, 22 by confession and obedience, two of who were Methodists, and two who had been immersed. We had the pleasure of having Bro. A.M. Dean of Texas, who happened to fall in with us on his way to visit his friends in Tennessee. He preached two discourses for us on Lord's day, and we were truly delighted with him. He has the happy art of presenting the gospel in it most simple form, and to the understanding of all. Brother Dean is neither a speculative nor political preacher, but preaches "the Word" ...

J.S. Robertson

Excerpts from a letter written by Elijah Kelley Sr. to the editors and publishers of The Gospel Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee. Vol. 8, No. 52, December 25, 1866, page 826:

Antoine, Pike county, Ark. Sept. 24, 1866

Bros. Fanning & Lipscomb: ... in company with Bros. William and Wesley Kelley ... From Okolona we went to Corinth, Pike county, where we commenced meeting on Saturday before the third Lord's day in this month, and closed Monday night. The result was nine additions by confession and immersion. The meeting was well attended, and the prospects are encouraging. The congregation at this place numbers one hundred and three. To the Lord be all the praise. Hoping that he may bless the administrations of his Word in all parts of his mortal vineyard, I remain yours in hope of eternal life.

Elijah Kelley

Letter written by Elijah Kelley Sr. to the editors and publishers of The Gospel Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee. Vol. 10, January 2, 1868, page 16:

LETTER FROM ELIJAH KELLEY, SR.

Antoine, Pike Co., Ark., October 15, 1867

Bros. Fanning and Lipscomb: -- I have just seated myself to write you a few lines, to let you know the cause of Christ is still alive in this county.

Fourth Lord's day in September, I visited the congregation at Corinth and delivered three discourses and had three accessions to the congregation.

Second Lord's day in October, I had preached three discourses at Green's old store, six miles from Corinth. Had five additions by confession and baptism, adding to the congregation eight at the two meetings, and, I believe, a good prospect for more. To the Lord be all the praise. The brethren at Corinth speak well for the cause - an humble, devoted brotherhood.

Yours in Christ,

Elijah Kelley Sr.

Subject: Question for Jan about Francis Lee

Jan,

The gentleman on the phone yesterday referred me to you and also gave me your web-site address. I am seeking info on Francis "Frank" Lee, and your web-site has a bio sketch on him from 1890. That was exciting! And you have a great web-site!

The Frank Lee I'm interested in was b. 1821, moved to New Hope in 1880, d. 1895. He married Elizabeth Smith in 1847 and she died in 1860. A son by this marriage, Franklin Pierce Lee, was known as an old man to my Dad in Alabama when my dad was a child.

My ancestor is James Aiken Smith of Ala. He had a brother named Solomon, his sister was Elizabeth. Elizabeth died in 1860 and Solomon died of disease in the Confederacy. In 1863, Solomon's widow, Mary Margaret Stracener Smith and Elizabeth's widower, Frank Lee, married each other. It was Frank and Mary who moved to Pike Co. in 1880.

I have 2 questions you may could help me with. First, there is a story circulating around that in Pike Co. there is some kind of monument in honor of Frank Lee. Have you ever heard of this? Also, if you have any other info on Frank and this family we would certainly appreciate it.

Second, I have been on the Arkansas State Archives Library web-site, and I can't even find an e-mail address to inquire as to whether there was ever a Civil War pension request filed by Mary or Frank. I am trying to reconcile his War record. Do you know of any other place that might would house Arkansas pensions and that I may can contact via e-mail just to see if there is a Lee pension? If there is one, I could order it at that time. But I can't get from Georgia to Arkansas not even knowing whether there is one or not!

Anyway, thanks for any help you might could give. And again, congratulations on a great web-site.

Sincerely,

Richard Sims

December the 6, 1866

Dear brothers and sisters and children

I seat my self this morning to write a letter for the first time in life. This leaves us all well at this time hoping these few lines may find you all well. I haven't any good news to write to you, times is hard here. We have all made plenty of come (sic) to do us by being saving with it but there are a great many that have not made half enough to do them. You all have heard of the death of our beloved father. It was an awful thing but we could do nothing more, death came and we had to part with him. Sisters oh sisters I stayed by his bed side till the last breath left him. Oh it seemed like my hart would burst but he has only paid the debt that we all have to pay and the last word that he spoke was to hurry me to the graveyard. Oh sisters you would miss him if you was here today for he was a father that was always at home with his family. Nancy Jane and Harrison live in that old house where you lived above us. Nancy Jane has a girl. Its name is Mary Elviry (sic). Wesley and Mary live at the place where they lived when you left here and are doing very well there. Sam is a great big fellow and says he can whip any of his cousins. Mother has broke a great deal since you have seen her. All her talk is in her children. She says that she would give all she has in the world to see you all again. Oh sisters if I could call back the days I have stayed with you and your sweet little children, oh it would be joyful but that day will never come again. Brother Jim you was more like a father to me than a brother. All the old neighbors are well. Tell Fate and Billy and Anny and Frony when they get grown they must come to see sis. They will not see little sis, I weigh one hundred and thirty pounds. Well I will come to a close for this time. Nothing more only I remain your true sister untill (sic) death. Write to me soon if you please. Farewell.

Dear Cuz,

I live in Nash, Texas, which is 6 miles west of Texarkana. I am 53 years old. My grandfather (Ed D. Horn) and all of his folks were from Howard Co. His father (Louis C. Horn) and mother (Eliza O. Sparks) both died when he was about 7 yrs. old. His uncle Oscar raised the younger children. It was a pleasant surprise to hear from you. I have been doing a lot of research on my mothers' side of our family the last couple of years. I have just really started the search for ancestors on my fathers' side. You have certainly been helpful! Oh, by the way, did I send you a copy of Eliza's church records and her obituary? If not, I will if you are interested. I just called my brother and told him that I got all of this info from you. Eliza's letter was really touching. We will keep the next reunion in mind. We know where Antoine River and Woodall Creek are. Did you have any luck cemetery hunting? Please keep in touch, as it is always good to hear about some long lost cousins.

The Pike County Archives and History Society was founded in 1986 and is a 501 C3 tax-exempt non-profit organization dedicated to collecting and preserving materials which bring together the unique history of Pike County, Arkansas and its people. One of the objectives of PCAHS is to promote interest in the history of Pike County and the State of Arkansas. PCAHS also works with children and young adults in conjunction with the area schools to teach the proper use of a research facility. The archives house over 500 old Pike County record books dating from 1895 including early tax records, maps, etc. The collection of materials also include family histories, census records, microfilm and book publications, and other material for historical and genealogical research. There is no charge for the use of these materials or for using the research facilities in Murfreesboro. Donations of money and, or re-search material, are always welcome. If you have questions regarding Pike County Ancestors or if you would like to donate your family history, pictures or other information that might help others with their research you can contact the society at: PCAHS, P.O. Box 875, Murfreesboro, Arkansas 71958. PCAHS is currently funded by membership dues, donations, and sales of publications. When you are in the Murfreesboro area plan to stop by the PCAHS office and see the research resources that are available for Pike County and surrounding area.
