IN REMEMBRANCE

LINDA KAY WILSON

The Pike County Archives and History Society lost a special person since our last issue. Linda Kay Wilson has served the society in many ways. She was the first Treasurer for the society and served in that position continuously until her death. This editor only knew Linda by reputation having never had the pleasure to meet her personally but I know she will be missed.

DELIGHT - Funeral services for Linda Kay Wilson, 63, of Delight were held at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 18 in First United Methodist Church. Bro. Freeman Henderson officiated. Burial was in the Delight Cemetery under the direction of Latimer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Wilson was born May 20, 1940, the daughter of the late Edward LeRoy and Audrey Frances (Crabtree) Catron. She died Tuesday, July 15, 2003, in a Little Rock hospital.

She was a member of First United Methodist Church in Delight, and was a founding member of both the Delight Area Chamber of Commerce and the Pike County Archives and Historical Society. She was also a member of the Lions Club and S.A.R.A.

Mrs. Wilson was employed by the state of Arkansas as the assistant manager of Williams Tavern Restaurant at Old Washington State Park.

She is survived by her husband, Thomas W. Wilson of Delight; a son, Thomas L. Wilson, and wife Lillian of Houston; two daughters and sons-in-law, Velvet K. Pilot and husband, Lyn D., of Bryant, and Laura Lee Wofford and husband, Gary, of Delight; a sister, Karen Ralston of Leavenworth, Kan.; a brother, Edward A. Catron of St. Joseph, Mo.; her stepmother, Gladys Catron of St. Joseph, Mo.; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be made to the Pike County Archives and Historical Society, P.O. box 875, Murfreesboro, AR 71958.

JAMES LITTLE

James Little was born in 1801 in Georgia and as a "young man" came to Clark County, Arkansas where he married Nancy Gentry about 1822. She was born in 1802 in Nashville, Tennessee and "with her parents" also came to Clark County. They eventually moved to Washington County, Arkansas where Nancy Little died in 1840 survived by four sons and three daughters: John Little, Malinda Catherine Little, Martha Caroline Little, James Little Jr., William G. Little, Nancy Angeline Little, and Samuel Rector Little.

James Little second married Elizabeth Franklin in 1842. They had two sons: Ewing M. Little and Ambrose H. Sevier Little.

James Little was one of the first settlers of Illinois, now Price Township in northwest Washington County at Summers. His death on September 22, 1845 occurred on a trip with other men of his community to sell their apple crops. He became sick and died and was buried by the road side and his burial place remains unknown. Nancy Gentry Little was buried on the family farm near Summers, Arkansas on the Ross Little Place. Traditional family history says she was of Cherokee Indian blood.

Elizabeth Franklin was born on December 27, 1824 in Tennessee and died March 14, 1890. She is buried in Ganderville Cemetery at Summers, Arkansas. She married second P .F .A. Babb on December 15, 1850 in Washington County, Arkansas. They had two children before separating. The children of James Little and his first wife Nancy Gentry were:

John Little born about 1823 in Clark County, Arkansas married Permelia, maiden name unknown, died in 1852 in Washington County, Arkansas.

Malinda Catherine Little born October 10, 1825 in Clark County, Arkansas married first Alexander A. Steward (Stewart) on February 27, 1848 in Washington County, Arkansas; he was born in 1820 and died in 1853; married second Luther N. Hollis in 1854; he was born in 1826 and died in 1877; she died March 2, 1896 at Van Buren, Arkansas.

Martha Caroline Little born November 10, 1826 in Clark County, Arkansas married first Tristrum E. Babb; he was supposedly killed in an ambush at a "salt lick" in 1861 or 1862 during the Civil War; married second Reuben Stewart (Stuart) Hamilton; he was born February 10, 1817 and died March 14, 1872; she died May 24, 1902 and is buried at Stroud, Lincoln County, Oklahoma.

James Little Jr. born about 1829 in Clark County, Arkansas died after January 1853.

William G. Little born about 1831 in Clark County, Arkansas died prior January 1853.

Nancy Angeline Little born about 1834 in Washington County, Arkansas married Nester Fort of Crawford County, Arkansas on June 12, 1851 in Washington County, Arkansas.

Samuel Rector Little born February 25, 1836 in Washington County, Arkansas married first Judy Ann Robertson on February 5, 1859 in Washington County, Arkansas; she was born in 1832 and died May 24, 1868; married second Nancy Elizabeth Dunlap in 1870; she was born February 11, 1855 and died June 3, 1936; he died June 10, 1908 and is buried in Ganderville Cemetery in Washington County, Arkansas.

The children of James little and his second wife Elizabeth Franklin were:

Ewing M. Little born June 5, 1843 in Washington County, Arkansas married Sarah E. Beatty daughter of Thomas and Nancy Beatty, on June 18, 1869; she was born December 3, 1847 and died September 6, 1934; he died January 12, 1903.

Ambrose Harrison Sevier Little born April 22, 1845 in Washington County, Arkansas married Sarah Jane Graham on June 10, 1866; she was born December 2, 1839 and died May 4, 1917; he died March 3, 1919.

James Little, deceased, was born in Georgia in 1801, when a young man he immigrated to Clark County, Arkansas and there married Nancy Gentry a native of Nashville, Tennessee born in 1802 who came with her parents to Clark County. After his marriage, Mr. Little moved to Washington, County in 1828 and engaged in farming and stock raising. He was left a widower in 1840 with four sons and three daughters. He then married Elizabeth Franklin who bore him two sons. He was a Democrat, and in religion a Primitive Baptist as was his first wife. Mrs. Little is still living and is a Methodist.

The death of Mr. Little occurred in 1845 and was much mourned by his friends and acquaintances. Catherine, the fourth child, one of his first wife's children, and the widow of the highly esteemed Luther N. Hollis was born October 10, 1825 in Clark County, Arkansas. She united in marriage in 1848 to Alex A. Steward who was born in Indiana in 1820. Mr. Steward came to Arkansas when a boy and had been previously wedded to Esther Hinds who lived but a short time. Mr. Steward was a shrewd business man and second lieutenant in the Mexican War, and a Democrat. He died in 1853. The following year his widow married Luther N. Hollis who was born in Indiana in 1826. Having learned the tanner's trade when a boy he worked at that business in Cincinnati, Ohio and Cassville, Missouri and Fayetteville, Arkansas. Later in life he turned his attention to farming. He also served in the first Confederate Company, Capt. Carroll's, which left Crawford County, serving as first lieutenant until the close of the war. He was twice taken prisoner and twice released. He died in 1877, lamented as a kind-hearted neighbor, and loving father and faithful friend. Mrs. Hollis has but one living child, Miss Maud Lee Hollis, but has cared for an orphan boy, Dick Hollis.

OBITUARY

Fayetteville Sentinel, March 25, 1890

Mrs. Elizabeth Little, relict of James Little was born in Tenn., Dec. 27, 1824, and died in her home in Price Township, Mar. 14, 1890. She was taken with the prevailing influenza, followed by pneumonia and lived only eight days. She seemed to have several weeks beforehand premonition of her early dissolution. She attended the burial of Jonathan Elms more than a month ago and told some of her intimate friends she would be the next one to be buried in that place. Then afterward, though in good health, she talked quietly, calmly, assuredly about her blessed hopes of future rest and joy, selected a place to be buried, and gave minute directions about all her affairs. She professed faith in Christ many years ago, and was received into the Church, near Cincinnati, in 1852. Her father, John Franklin, settled on War Eagle in Madison County, but her husband was one of the first settlers of what is now Price Township. She married at eighteen and leaves three sons and several step children to mourn her loss.
