Haynes Family

My great grandfather was born and reared in Virginia. His name was George J. Haynes, born Mar. 5, 1744, and was in the Revolutionary War, and survived the war. My grandfather was named William, born and reared in Virginia. He was born in 1762 and died in 1846, age 84. He married Sarah Hill, my grandmother. To them were born ten children, eight boys and two girls - my father, seven uncles and two aunts.

My uncles were: John, William, Edward, James, Ephraim, Johnson and father, Henry, who was a Baptist preacher, and Johnsthan. James died young at the age of 21. Ephraim and Johnson had large families, Ephraim died in 1857 in east Tennessee. John and William died in N.C., John in 1852 and William in 1859. Edward died in Hood Co., Tex. in 1868 or 1869. Henry, my father ... died Mar. 3, 1877 in his eightieth year. Johnsthan died in Georgia ... Uncle Johnson died in Columbia County, Ark. in 1875.

My father ... was moderator of the New Hope Baptist Association in 1835 in the State of Georgia when the Baptist divided on the subject of missions. (He) preached the Convention sermon in 1847 when Arkansas Baptist State Convention was organized near Tulip, Dallas County, Ark. He was born in Virginia on Oct 17, 1797. He was raised in Buncomb and Hayward Counties, N.C. from the age of three. On his twenty-first birthday he crossed the Mississippi River at New Madrid, and lived six years near Iron Mountain, Mo. where he married Phoebe Eaton, his first wife. She was born Mar. 22, 1800 in N. C. He then moved to the State of Georgia in 1824 or 1825. Born to this union were ten children:

Sarah Haynes born March 20th, 1820 Mary Haynes born March 21st, 1822 Nancy Haynes born November 16th, 1823 Elizabeth Haynes born April 29th, 1826 George Jackson Haynes born March 10th, 1828 James William Haynes born June 4th, 1830 Barbary S. Haynes born January 4th, 1832 Johnathan Marion Haynes born March 11th, 1834 William Benton Haynes born August 10th, 1836 Henry Franklin Haynes born September 2nd, 1838

These are all dead but Elizabeth, who married Gilbert Cole, and now lives in Carrollton, Ga. Sarah died single. Mary married William Williams. Nancy married George Sharp. George married Eliza Jane Bagwell and died in Ga. in 1902. James died young. Johnathan died or got killed at Ft. Donnalson, Ky. in the Civil War in the Spring of 1862. Barbary died young. William died young. Henry Franklin died at Cross Hollow, Ark. in the Civil War in the Fall of 1861.

My father, Henry Haynes, and Elizabeth Goodson, my mother, were married on her twenty-first birth-day, June 26, 1839. She was baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist Church at old Carrollton by Johnathan Halcomb in the State of Georgia on June 28, two days after her marriage and birthday. I here insert the names of my whole brothers and sisters and when born.

Phoebe Ann Haynes was born April 26th, 1840 John Jasper Haynes was born October 25th, 1841 Thomas Jefferson Haynes was born April 30th, 1843 Benjamin Polk Haynes was born November 4th, 1844 Joseph Dallis Haynes was born September 7th, 1846 Amanda Samanthia Haynes was born September 14th, 1848 Andrew Lafayette Haynes was born October 9th, 1850 Cicero Pierce Haynes was born April 2nd, 1852 Emily Salina Haynes was born April 19th, 1854 Hershel Johnson Haynes was born April 10th, 1856 Lenora Joye Haynes was born December 7th, 1858 An infant died at birth in January 1869.

In the first family (previous page) there were ten children born. In the second family (above), twelve, in all 22. Sister Phoebe died when two years old. Sister Amanda died when 17 years old. Brother Joseph died when 19 years old. Cicero died when 13 years old. Infant born dead. Lenora Haynes Dudley died when 30 years old. J.J., T.J., B.P., A.L., and H.J. Haynes, five brothers are living. Emily Davis, sister, is living.

The Haynes family traverse the land in Virginia, North Carolina, and Tennessee. My great uncle, Kilzer Haynes, lived in East Tennessee not far from Knoxville and Mossey (sic) Creek when my grandfather lived near Ashville, North Carolina. From his family sprang Lauden C. Haynes, a brother of Bob and Alf Taylor's mother. There is any amount of Haynes, Goodsons, and Taylors in East Tennessee at this time.

John Jasper Haynes (writer) and Mary Jane Garner were married by Justice Lihew Mixon at his home in Columbia County, Arkansas, October 7th, 1858. Mary J. Garner is the daughter of Thomas Wade Garner and Sarah Garner. T.W. Garner was the son of Benjamin Garner born February 3rd, 1806, in Lawrence District, South Carolina. Sarah Reeves Garner (his wife) was born in South Carolina, October 30th, 1812. They were married in DeKalb county, Georgia, February 7th, A.D. 1829. Witnesses were William White and Eliza Brantley. From this union were born twelve children:

Parmelia Garner born February 3rd, 1830 Infant daughter born December 31st, 1831 John M. Garner was born March 18th, 1833 Francis S. Garner was born November 7th, 1835 Henry Garner was born December 29th, 1837 Rachel F. Garner was born March 25th, 1840 Mary Jane Garner was born October 23rd, 1842 Sarah A. Garner was born August 31st, 1845 Emily Garner was born February 22nd, 1848 Infant son was born March 20th, 1851 Margaret E. Garner was born June 5th, 1852 Thomas J. Garner was born October 9th, 1855

John M. Garner, Francis B. Garner and Thomas J. Garner, three sons are living. Rachel E. Garner, Mary Jane Haynes and Sarah A. Hearn, three sisters are living. The father and mother and all the children are and were members of the Baptist church that made professions of faith in Christ.

As stated, J.J. Haynes and Mary J. Garner were married October 7th, 1858, a few days before they were 17 and 16 years old respectively. Although young and tender in years and without education or money observation or experience in the responsibilities of keeping house or making a living, this was truly a happy union. As a result of this union four children were born: Henry T. Haynes was born in Pike county, Arkansas, September the 1st, A.D. 1859. We named him for his grand papas: Henry for my father and Thomas for my wife's father. In five or six weeks we moved from Pike to Columbia county and bought a home, mostly on time. Here we lived until I went into the Civil War on July 8th, 1861.

for the front. We went to Little Rock where the 11th Arkansas Regiment was organized. Then we went to Memphis, Tennessee, then to Fort Pillow, then to Island No. 10 in the Mississippi River sixty miles below Cairo, Illinois. Here and at New Madrid, Missouri, we spent the first winter of the war. New Madrid was fortified as was Island No. 10, ten miles above. Col. E.W. Gant of Arkansas was in command with 2000 men. Here was my first battle on April the 6th and 7th, 1862. After heavy bombardment for three days we were ordered to evacuate the fort. This we did to our sorrow and detriment. We landed on the East side of the river at Tiptonvile, Tennessee known as Reel Foot Bend surrounded by Reel Foot Lake and the Mississippi river. The river was raging and we had no way of escape only to take to the water. Here the command was surrendered.

A few days before the surrender there was a coincidence that saved me ... from a prison life if not from death. One of the boys ... said, "Haynes, come to dinner." An old man was passing and heard my name. He stopped and said to me, "Is your name Haynes?" I said, "Yes". Then he said, "That is my name and I live in this village. Get permission and go to my home." I did and found where he lived. He and family treated me well. The night we were surrendered I got to his house with comrades, Henry Nelson and Robin Ridling, the overflow was up in his yard. In the early morning he took his horses and we went off in the water at once. We rode all day in the water and at sundown we got where the water was too deep for the horses. Here we dismounted on a mound. The water was 6 or 8 inches deep. We camped between the roots of large trees. A hard rain fell all night. At daybreak we had a fearful snow storm for 1 or 1 and 1/2 hours. Then the mist cleared away and the sun was a welcome visitor. I prayed all night. I will never forget that night. I am sure the Good Lord was with me or us. There was a Cavalry company of Tennesseans that went to this point of the lake before we got there. We fell in with them and was glad to find them. They had caught an old one horse barge and skiff that some parties had turned loose 15 miles above and with these we got across the lake, three miles wide. This lake was formed from the sunken lands of an earthquake. With many thanks we bid farewell to my old relative, Haynes, that rescued us from the Yankees. He returned to his home and my two friends and I were the last ones to get across the lake. Three of us bailed water out of the boat all across the lake to keep it from sinking.

Goodson Family

My great-grandfather, William Goodson, married Mary Patton. They came across the ocean from England before the Revolutionary War, and settled in Lincoln County, N.C. or what is now Lincoln County. Here my grandfather Michael Goodson was reared. He had five brothers, William, Champion, Benjamin, Andrew, and John; also three sisters, Jane, Annie and Elizabeth. Champion, Benjamin and Andrew were at the Battle of New Orleans in General Jackson's Army. John was in the army, but not in the Battle of New Orleans. They all raised families, lived and died in N.C. and Tenn. Their posterity now live in N.C., Tenn. and Ga., and from there on to the far west.

My grandfather, Michael Goodson, married Lidda Vestill, who was born and reared near Raleigh, N.C. To this union were born ten children, five boys and five girls. George Washington, Andrew, John, Michael and Roland. All these died in Tenn., but Michael died in Ga. Uncle John was murdered in West Tennessee, about the close of the Civil War, for his money. He was wealthy. He had no family. Dyersburg was his town. He was a merchant and did frequently buy all the cotton and tobacco raised in Gibson Co. He traded in New Orleans. I was named for him. I remember him and always loved him.

Names of my aunts. Mary married a Dillinger and died in Carbondale, Ill. in 1902, aged eighty-six. I saw her once. Elizabeth, my mother, is still living in her eighty-sixth year. Malinda married John McCurdy and died about 1867 or 1868 in Sevier Co., Ark. Lottie married James McQuirter and died in Term. in 1859. Amanda married George Holden and when last heard from, lived in Anniston, Ala. I have named my aunts and uncles in the order born as nearly as I could without dates. I mean, I gave the name of the oldest boy first then to the youngest, same way with the girls. Of course, the births are interspersed. My mother's people were merchants, mechanics, and farmers who, without exception, made a success and money at their professions. My grandmother was a Baptist, a devout Christian. The children were Baptist, all that made profession of Faith but Aunt Mary Dillinger, who joined the Methodist church with her husband. Her children were Methodist.

My uncles were all Democrats, the worst kind of Washington and Jackson Democrats. Uncle Andrew and Roland lived and died on the Cumberland River just above Nashville, Tenn. Uncle Roland was very large. His weight was 360 pounds. I have any amount of kin people on both sides of my family from West Tennessee to western North Carolina. J. Frank Goodson and brother ... are living and doing a large wholesale grocery business in Morristown, Tenn. I stayed in their home one night each in May 1902.

Pvt. John Jasper Haynes

John Jasper Haynes was born in Carroll County, Ga. in 1841, came to Arkansas with his family in the 1850's, and enlisted in Capt. J.L. Logan's company in Camden in July, 1861 ... Benjamin Polk Haynes in his 1911 Confederate Veteran's interview states that his brother John Jasper Haynes belonged to the 11th Arkansas Regiment "and served from the beginning to the close of the war, was in all the battles in which his regiment took a part, was never wounded, and is now living at Mena, Arkansas and is an honored Baptist preacher, and has been for more than 30 years." The Rev. John Jasper Haynes died in 1916 in Mena, Arkansas, and is buried there in Pine Crest Cemetery.

Confederate Biographical File

Benjamin Polk Haynes

Benjamin Polk Haynes of Hope, Ark. was born Nov. 4, 1844 at Villa Rica, Carroll Co., Ga. the son of Henry Haynes, born on Oct. 17, 1797, in Henry Co., Va. (who) lived at Haywood Co., N.C., Potosi, Mo., then at Villa Rica, Ga. and in Columbia, Pike and Hempstead Cos., of Ark., (and) was living on a farm in Hempstead Co. near Hope at the time of his death in March 1877, in his 80th year. He was the son of William Haynes and his wife (Sarah) Haynes, who lived at Henry Co., Va., Haywood Co., N.C. and Carroll Co., Ga. The maiden name of subject's mother was Elizabeth Goodson, dau. of Michael Goodson and his wife Lydia Vestal. She was born June 16, 1818 in Lincoln Co., N.C. and lived at or near Villa Rica, Ga. and moved with her husband and family to Ark. in 1857. She was the mother of twelve children - the writer being the 4th. My mother died at Murfreesboro, Ark. in Nov. 1903 in her 86th year. She was a thoroughly "Confederate Woman". She and the negro women that belonged to her, spun and wove, and made cloth to clothe her boys and other boys who were fighting the battles of this Fair South Land, and worked with a will with her own hands both day and night.

My father's, or the Haynes family, came from Scotland and settled in Virginia before the War for Independence. Two brothers of my grandfather Haynes and my grandfather Goodson were soldiers in the Continental Army under General Washington, but we do not know that they held any office, either military or civil. My grand-father Haynes was too young to serve in that war.

My Mother's ancestors came from England and settled in North Carolina before the War for Independence, but we know very little of the history of our mother's family. Our ancestry on both sides of the family, as far back as we can trace them, has a record of being law abiding people. We have no account of any of the Haynes family ever committing any crime of any note, and during the war with the States, all of my kin-folks that we know anything about, who was subject to service, were volunteers military in the Confederate Army, and we are proud of the fact that we never heard of a Haynes that was a deserter from that Army.

I am the youngest of five brothers who fought for "Southern Rights". The oldest, J.N. Haynes, belonged to the 15th Ark. Regt. (and) was captured at the battle of Fort Donelson and died in prison at Alton, Ill. in 1863. Next oldest, H.F. Haynes, belonged to the 4th Ark. Regt. (and) died of measles at Camp Walker, Benton Co., Ark. in 1862. Next is J.J. Haynes who belonged to the 11th Ark. Regt. and served from the beginning to the close of the war, was in all the battles in which his Regt. took a part, was never wounded, and is now living at Mena, Ark. and is an honored Baptist preacher and has been for more than 30 years. Thomas J. Haynes, my next oldest brother, belonged to the 4th Ark. Regt. which was in Bragg's Army in Tenn. and was afterwards taken a prisoner at the Battle of Chickamauga, Ga. and put in prison at Camp Douglas, Illinois and was held until the close of the war when he returned home and lived an honored citizen of this county (Hempstead) until about seven years ago. He died and we buried him at Shover Springs, Ark. five miles southeast from Hope, Ark.

Now, as to myself, in my boyhood days I was taught in the common schools where we lived in Ga. and in Ark. The names of my Georgia teachers were A.Y. Sheets, Radford Emery, G.J. Haynes my oldest half-brother, Miss Sarah Autry, Capt. John M. Cobb and L.D. Perkison, up to 1857 when my father and all the family, including the negroes he owned, moved overland to Ark.; was 47 days on the road, traveled 700 miles, did not cross a railroad, nor see a train of cars on the whole trip. The war deprived me of a college education. I was attending a high school "John-son's Institute" near Bingen, Hempstead Co., Ark. in 1862 when I volunteered and joined a Cavalry Company raised at Murfreesboro, Ark., commanded by Capt. G.R.D. Preston, and was made Co. C in Witherspoon's Battalion, which was consolidated with Col. Monroe's Regt. the 1st Ark. Cavalry, Gen. Cabell's Brigade, Col. Fagan's Div. of Gen. Sterling Price's Army of the Trans-Mississippi Dept. The letter of our company was changed from "C" to "E" after being consolidated with the 1st Regt. In this Army I served until I was discharged on 27 May 1865 near Corsicana, Texas. I was in 22 hotly contested battles, but we gained the victory, and routed the enemy in nearly all these battles.

My occupation has been farming, teaching school, running a sawmill, merchandising, dealing in real estate, and I have succeeded in earning an honest living for myself and family.

I married Mary Ann Davis, dau. of Abijah and Lucinda Davis, on 27 January 1866 near Murfreesboro, Ark. We know very little of the wife's parents ancestry. Her father and mother were both natives of Missouri and moved with their parents to Pike Co., Ark. when they were children and when the state was a territory. Wife's mother's maiden name was Lucinda Brewer. (Her) parents have been dead over 25 years and are buried in the cemetery at Murfreesboro, Ark. They were slave owners and contributed to the cause of the Confederacy liberally. My parents are buried in Macedonia Church Cemetery, eight miles south-east from Hope, Ark.

Children: 1. John H. Haynes, oldest, single, Hope, Ark. 2. Ludie E. Haynes m. Robert N. Singleton, 26 years ago, and five years later Mr. Singleton died leaving his wife with three small children: William Polk, Edna Fern, and Flossie Singleton, all of whom are now of age and educated. William Polk is a merchant, Edna Fern and Flossie are teachers, (and) all live at Hope, Ark. 3. Charles A. Haynes, single, a merchant, Hope, Ark. 4. James Augustus Haynes m. Miss Annie Black and they have two lovely little boys, the oldest Henry Autrey, 3 years, and Benjamin Polk Haynes, one year old. He is a merchant, Hope, Ark. 5. Cora Maud Haynes m. Charles F. Routon. They have been married about 8 years. They have one lovely little boy, Charles F. Routon, Jr., six years old. Mr. Routon is a merchant, Hope, Ark. 6. Stella May Haynes, our youngest, ... was married to Mr. Charles A. Hervey about five years ago. Mr. Hervey also is a merchant, Hope, Ark.

John F. Davis

Merchant and farmer, Murfreesboro, Ark.

In the business of merchandising Mr. Davis is second to no other merchant in this portion of the county. There are but few residents who have carried on merchandising and farming and have made a success of both as has our subject. He is a native-born resident of this county, his birth occurring where he now lives in 1850, and is the fifth of seven children, the result of the union of Abijah and Lucinda (Dickson, nee Brewer) Davis, natives of Illinois and Missouri, respectively. Abijah Davis moved with his parents to Arkansas in 1822 and in growing up in that day and time received no advantages, so that in starting out for himself at the age of nineteen, he was absolutely penniless. He engaged in farming, and was married in 1839. About this time he bought a small farm of 160 acres, three-fourths of a mile west of Murfreesboro, which he improved and added to, until at the time of his death, which occurred in 1873, he was the owner of 680 acres, with 150 acres under cultivation, all the result of his honest. earnest labor. He took an active interest in all enterprises for the good of the county and was willing to lend a helping hand. John F. Davis worked industriously on his father's farm and attended the public schools of the county until twenty-one years of age, when he began farming in Muddy Creek Township. He was married in 1871 to Miss Emily S. Haynes, a native of Georgia, and after his father's death, returned to the old homestead. He bought considerable land, inherited some, and now has 500 acres, 150 under cultivation, all of which he has cleared himself. His land is very productive, and much of it will make over a bale of cotton to the acre. He has an excellent orchard and a good place in all respects. In 1881 he bought the mill and gin in town and after two years sold it. In December 1889, he engaged in merchandising in Murfreesboro in partnership with Owens & Stevens, but soon bought his partner out. In February 1890, Mr. Stevens purchased an interest again. They carry a complete stock of general merchandise valued at $3,000, and are doing a good business. To the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been born eight children, all of whom are living: Martha and Mary (twins, born in 1872), Abijah (born in 1874), Eletha, Cora Lee, Beulah May, Ida and Joe

Florence. Mr. Davis is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and his wife is a member of the Baptist. He is active in his support of churches and schools, and is director in his school district. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, Pike Lodge No. 91, and is senior warden in the same.

Murfreesboro, Ark. 71958 Jan. 19, 1982

Dear David, ...

I went to the cemetery this afternoon and the following is what I found.

Abijah Davis Feb. 28, 1807 Oct. 15, 1873

Tombstone made by J. White & son, Memphis.

Lucinda Wife of A. Davis Dec. 19, 1813 Sept. 12, 1886

Buried by their side is,

Howel son of Abijah and Lucinda Davis Died Dec. 21, 1855 Age 17

Buried at the head of A. & L. Davis is,

William E. Davis Nov. 6, 1859 Nov. 2, 1883

And next to him,

James O.
Son of W.E. & A.A. Davis
Aug. 12, 1878 Jan. 2,
1887

It makes me so sad ... I believe it started Halloween. We have had 3 ... tombstone "turning overs" here at our cemetery since then ... broke up a bunch of the old ones ... Some of those tombstones were huge and had a big block of cement in the ground to erect them ... even pushed the concrete out of the ground.

People have placed them back together, but they have been placed flat on the ground and will in a course of time probably be covered with soil ... Abijah is one that was broken. It's about 3 ft. high & rather thin. Lucinda's is more like a post. It was also turned over, but has been set up again and just had the top knob broken off and done away with. Her's is still clear ...

Sincerely,

Magora Owens

The Church of Christ Corinth, Arkansas

The Church of Christ at Corinth, Arkansas was established in 1850 in Pike now Howard County. Its early history and the individuals and families associated with its founding have been preserved in the writings of S.Brooks Reese in his history of "Corinth and Its Kinfolk" completed in April 1931. He says, "The writer hardly knows how to begin ... I have been requested by a number of people to write ... a history of the church and the people that made it what is has been, and is yet. I will say ... that the church has probably done more to make the people what they are yet, than some may think."

The first organized church in Pike County was the Church of Christ at Antioch now Delight in 1833. Elijah Kelley of Wolf Creek began to preach in 1826 following his own conversion and baptism in Alabama in 1824. His father was a Baptist preacher and his mother influenced his reading the New Testament and following its teachings. His brother William Kelley adhered to the Baptist faith but later converted and became the first Pastor of the Antioch Church in 1842 and also its first Elder. The families of these two men and many of their neighbors were among the charter members.

In 1848 the Bethel Church was organized in Pike County and was one of the oldest American Baptist Association churches in Arkansas. Russell Pierce Baker in "Resetting The Old Landmarks" says, "It was first called Caddo Valley Church. Later the name was changed to Pleasant Grove. In 1861 it became Bethel Church. Its founding families came from (the) old Mount Bethel Church" in Clark County, Arkansas.

S. Brooks Reese writes, "David D. Jones, Anthony Floyd, and Tyler Bacon had joined in with the Campbell (movement) before they left Tennessee and they got ... (a) preacher from over in the east side of the county to preach for them. This ... brother was named Kelley and he organized a church at old Antioch, now Delight, in 1833. So by 1850 several of the Tennesseans had united with the first three mentioned ... (and) they proceeded to organize the (third) church of Christ in the State of Arkansas." (A church at Little Rock had been established in 1832). "They had no church house or even a school house to meet in, and they met in Tyler Bacon's dwelling house one mile northeast of the present church site. How many years they worshipped there I cannot say, but not long.

David D. Jones, Anthony Floyd and Tyler Bacon were the first Elders and held that position until after the Civil War."

Subject: Drapers

Hello Retha ...

... I was visiting the Kirby area a couple weeks ago ... I did locate the property that my gg grandfather and mother raised their children. It was a hundred and ten acre homestead on the northwest side of Bear Creek off Hwy. Eightyfour. I found some cousins who live there. I have also (been given) a story I am following up on. Seems my great grandfather Andrew Jackson Draper Jr. had a shoot-out with a Mr. White around 1900 (and) he and his family went to Indian Territory that very day ...

I am looking for the graves of my gg grandmother and father. She was Caroline Ellen Pettey Draper and his name was Andrew Jackson Draper. Their children were Andrew Jackson Draper, James Lewis Draper and Lewis James Draper, John J. Draper and Mary Ellen Draper. These children were raised in Kirby, any information about this family will be greatly appreciated ...

Hello Retha,

Hwy. 84 running west out of Kirby crosses Bear Creek running north and south. On the northwest side of Bear Creek is the old homestead of my gg grandfather. My ggg grandfather was Coleman Draper. He was married to Annis Jones. Coleman Draper died in 1859 and is buried somewhere around the old homestead. I thought Redland Cemetery or the homestead would be a good place to start looking. My gg grandmother may well be buried there though some people think she is buried somewhere around Hope in Hempstead county, but I still think she is buried around the home-place also. My Drapers lived there in the White Township which (I) do not know much about. Caroline Pettey, my gg grandmother, was born in 1825 in Jones County, Georgia. They moved to the homestead there in Kirby in 1859. I am sure there were slaves owned by this family. A brother of my gg grandfather was named Thomas Jefferson Draper. He was a slave owner.

I do not know about my gg grandfather Andrew Jackson Draper. He is not listed on the census after 1860. My g-grandfather was (also) named Andrew Jackson Draper. He was raised on this homestead alone with James Lewis Draper, Lewis James Draper, Mary Draper and John J. Draper. John J. (Draper) was the oldest and fought in the CSA in the south. He was born in Pontotoc County, Mississippi in 1848 and became a wealthy cattleman and rancher in Texas ...

Coblentz

41 Lookout Dr. Bloomsburg, PA 17815 3 May 2002

Pike County Court House Recorder of Wills PO Box 219 Murfreesboro, AR 71958

... I am working on a family tree and for this I would like to obtain information. William S. Coblentz, age 57 (b. in OH) and his wife Bertha, age 38 (B. in W VA) appear in the 1920 census as living in Thompson Twp., Pike Co. (page 4A). He was a lawyer in the firm Coblentz and ------.

Given the fact of his age, and that he had left Ohio many, many years earlier, I am sure that he remained living in the vicinity. His mother's obituary in 1920 also listed him as living there (in Murfreesboro). I am wondering ... whether you have anything in the way of a will or estate settlement for this man or for his wife? ... death dates? ... Can you tell me anything more about him?

Sincerely,

Rachel Bitler

Subject: Sparks and Adams

Hi Retha,

We are Jay and Peggy Draper ... We were looking at the two books "Early History of Pike County Arkansas" and "Pike County Arkansas: A Look at the Past" and there are several pictures of Mary Ann (Draper) Sparks. She was born in 1852 and her children's names are Ellen McCauley-?, James William, July Annice, Oscar Ollen, Clara May, Ollie Sparks ... Also, Jay's Mother's Mother is Lou Ada Jane (Adams) Adcock born April 6, 1883 ... Jav's Mother was born in Glenwood. Lou Ada's Father and Mother were William J. Adams and Louise Jane Meyers-? (sp).

We ... would appreciate anything you could tell us. Our address is 621 Ash Street, Walla Walla, Washington 99362.

Thank you very much,

Jay & Peggy Draper

Martha W. Mobley-Indian Heritage

From: Bob Mobley (mailto:maverick60@cableone.net); Sent: Thursday, June 20, 2002 9:38 AM To: Morris Myers (webmaster@TheMyers.org) Subject: Mobley of Pike Co., AR

Hello Mr. Myers, I'm writing this email in hopes of getting some the Sparks family. Jay's G-Grandfather's sister is info on my Mobley ancestors in Pike Co. I'm hoping to locate a marriage certificate for David Mobley (Jr.) & Martha W. ---. They were reportedly married in Pike Co., AR about 1846. I don't have a specific date ... I do know they were on the 1850 & 1860 census of the county along with their children. Their oldest child, W.G. Mobley born about 1848, (was) my gg-grandfather ... I'm trying to find ... if Martha W. - was in any way a Native Indian. From several sources I've been told that my gg-grandfather William G. Mobley was at least part Indian. I'd love to learn the source of this Indian blood and only have Martha W. _____ as a possible source of it, so far. She was reportedly born about 1829-1830 in Tennessee. No other info known at this time ...

Thanks,

Bob Mobley

1920-1930 Arkansas Census - help. I have seen the partial 1920 census, but would like to view it completely and the 1930 also. Where could I go to see those two census?. I am hunting for a Thomas (Leroy) Bell born about 1895 in Pike Co., Ark. in (the) Nathan or Muddy Fork area, I don't know where he went after he left that area in about 1920's If anyone can help it would be great. Thank Debbie Morris, email: vou. mandmhorsefarm@alltel.net, 3 May 2002.

Lucinda Pink Brewer, b. January 26, 1852, Pike County AR. We are interested in obtaining information on the following family which includes my great-grandmother Lucinda Pink Brewer. I just recently learned from my g-grandmother's TX Confederate Widow Pension Application that these Brewers migrated to Texas in the 1870's from Pike County, Arkansas.

1860 AR Census, Pike County, Muddyfork Township

John Brewer	46	M	Farmer	born Tennessee
S.J. Brewer	32	F		born No. Carolina
M.A.T. Brewer	12	F		born Arkansas born
W.A. Brewer	10	M		Arkansas born
Lucinda Brewer	7	F		Arkansas born
Louisa Brewer	4	F		Arkansas born
H.L. Brewer	10/12	M		Arkansas

We are sure there is a connection to the other Brewers in Pike County because of given names like Lucinda, Mattie, Henry, Louisa, Lillie May, in Pike County records. These are all names in my family line. Any assistance would be greatly appreciated. Regards, Jerry Cherry, email: jcherry11@charter.net), 3 May 2002.

Albert Vickery. Abstract made by an unknown abstractor about 1890 from original records of Pike County, Arkansas and recorded in Abstract of Title Book Prior to 1890. "Will Book A page 62. Last Will and Testament of Albert Vickery of Sevier County, Arkansas. Dated August 30th 1871. He appoints his son Sampson Wm. May 31 - We received the 3 copies on microfilm of the Pike County, Arkansas 1930 census ordered by the archives. Also, we have ordered the 1930 census for: Roll 67, Chicot-Clark; Roll 75, Garland-Howard; Roll 76, Greene-Hempstead part; Roll 77, Hempstead part-Hot Spring; Roll 84, Miller-Nevada; Roll 85, Mississippi part-Montgomery-Newton-Quachita; and Roll 88, Phillips part-Poinsette, counties. The new microfilm machine arrived today.

June 7 - Tonight we had our monthly meeting at PCAHS. We are getting another new microfilm machine, the 1930 Sevier County, Arkansas census and much more. This weekend is Diamond festival time in Murfreesboro. The archive is once again doing computer generated family searches for the public and selling books. The family search, we will be doing for free or for donations. It is a fun thing and the public seems to enjoy it.

June 14 - PCAHS June 7 meeting continued. The June meeting went well. We took care of quite a lot of business with some business tabled until the next meeting. It was almost ten p.m. when we finished and closed the meeting. One of the things we changed was the printer for "The Gems". It will be printed locally by Sun Printing in Murfreesboro with a reduction of cost and a change of binding. It will be a booklet and saddle stitched. I asked about increasing the size back to 40 pages and received a price for it. The price was presented in the meeting and we also discussed making "The Gems" a quarterly that could be bought on the market, public sale, such as grocery stores and the like for an increased price, buying across the counter. Members issues would stay the same as part of membership. These were tabled. Approved: a new printer for the Dell PC (personal computer), 2 fire extinguishers, 3 smoke detectors, the purchase of newspaper microfilm which includes the Glenwood Herald, March 17, 1927-August 23, 1995; Glenwood News Press, June 28, 1918-October 31, 1924; Glenwood Press, beginning March 21, 1919 with other miscellaneous Pike newspapers, roll 1; County Murfreesboro Diamond, October 7, 1976-May 21, 1997 missing 1989-1995 issues. Also approved was a new storage cabinet for the microfilm that will hold 216 rolls of film; the purchase of Arkansas Death Index, Vol. 4, 1941-1948; and archival storage shelves with sixty archival storage boxes to store and preserve school records. The Archives family history search at the Diamond Festival was a huge success. Several people joined the archives. We had to have at least two members work in the archives at the same time for most of the weekend. At one time, on Saturday afternoon, Chester Gage and I counted 15 people sitting at tables working on history, talking about history, or at the computer. We met many new people and made many new friends.

Jan J. McGalliard

PCAHS extends its appreciation for all of the aforementioned materials it has received from the many contributors, and for monetary donations, and for the volunteer workers who have devoted their time to operate the archives.

Caller from Ancestry.com Author: Marcel Gutierrez Date: 8 Jul 2002 5:15 PM GMT

Someone named Andy just called me saying he was from Ancestry.com and wanted to go over my credit card and personal information to update my account.

I asked him to send the request on email or regular mail since I don't like solicitation calls and don't give out that info over the phone. He told me it was not possible to send me an email. When I pointed out that I get a weekly digest from Ancestry.com via email, and didn't understand why they could not request the information that way, he hung up without another word.

I can only conclude that he was just trying to get my personal information for another reason, or that he is just a rude employee at Ancestry.com. Either way, beware.

Exercise caution and do not provide any personal information to anyone representing themselves as from Ancestry.com by telephone contact.

About PCAHS

The Pike County Archives and History Society was founded in 1986 and is a 501 C3 tax-exempt non-profit organization dedicated to collecting and preserving materials which bring together the unique history of Pike County, Arkansas and its people. One of the objectives of PCAHS is to promote interest in the history of Pike County and the State of Arkansas. PCAHS also works with children and young adults in conjunction with the area schools to teach the proper use of a research facility. The archives house over 500 old Pike County record books dating from 1895 including early tax records, maps, etc. The collection of materials also include family histories, census records, microfilm and book publications, and other material for historical and genealogical research. There is no charge for the use of these materials or for using the research facilities in Murfreesboro. Donations of money and, or research material, are always welcome. If you have questions regarding Pike County Ancestors or if you would like to donate your family history, pictures or other information that might help others with their research you can contact the society at: PCAHS, P.O. Box 875, Murfreesboro, Arkansas 71958. PCAHS is currently funded by membership dues, donations, and sales of publications. When you are in the Murfreesboro area plan to stop by the PCAHS office and see the research resources that are available for Pike County and surrounding area. In March 2002 we opened at a new location with plenty of room for you to do your research at 112 N. Washington Avenue, Suite B, Murfreesboro, Arkansas.
